Public Hearing

City Of Yes Economic Opportunity Proposal, hearing chaired by Paul Devlin.

- Catie Savage: A one-size fits-all approach to zoning is not appropriate for the diverse neighborhoods that make up New York City. We are particularly concerned about the proposal to convert second floor residential into commercial, as well as having 50% of apartment space to be used potentially for business. While we're in the midst of a housing crisis, we can not risk an encroachment on our dwindling housing stock by corporate enterprises.
- Tom Meany: there will be inadequate law enforcement to effectively enforce the rules of City of Yes.

Mayor's Preliminary Budget for Fiscal Year 2025, hearing chaired by Leslie Boghosian Murphy. There were no speakers on this topic.

	Reports From Elected Officials
Manhattan Borough President Mark Levine's Office, presented by Yiyi Wang	 Applications to serve on the Community Board are still open; the deadline has been extended to early March; please go to our web site to find out all of the information and to find the application. Some sidewalk sheds and scaffolding have remained in place for more than 5 years, which shouldn't be allowed. We've recently given out "awards" for the longest running sidewalk sheds, and two of them can be found in MCD4. We have introduced legislation to address this problem.

	 The MBP will be celebrating Black History Month on February 20th at Aaron Davis Hall with a celebration of 50 Years of Hip Hop. We hope to see you there! Our office is providing free tax preparation help on Fridays from 9 to 5 through April 12. Appointments are strongly suggested. Please call 212-531 1609.
	• You still have time to apply for our Capital funding for the fiscal year 2025. The deadline in Feb. 22 and there will be no extensions.
NY State Senator Brad Hoylman-Siegel	 Introduced new liaison to MCB4, Jonah Rose. Very involved in hearings in Albany regarding the State budget. Believes that NYC is not getting what it needs from the State in the budget. Explained that NYC sends more tax dollars to Albany than it gets back. Introduced or partnered on several legislative initiatives, including: preventing banks from charging fees when customers use EBT cards deterring the fencing of stolen goods online (e.g. Craigslist, Facebook Marketplace) expanding the number of hate crimes allowing medical aid in dying guaranteeing a right to representation in deportation proceedings regulating e-bikes Pleased to report that Midtown Community Justice Center will resume operations 5 days a week
NYC Council Member Gale Brewer	 We are doing another cannabis study to provide updated data about the numbers of unlicensed shops selling cannabis. The proliferation is beyond frustrating, and we have reached out to the Sheriff's Office, the Health Department and City Council to see what more can be done to shut them down. I am very frustrated by the new rule that requires migrants to leave their temporary homes after 60-days and re-apply for housing. This is terrible for families with kids in schools especially. We are trying hard to ensure that kids don't lose their places in their current schools. The proposed budget cuts to the City's budget are terrible.
NY State Senator Krueger, presented by Dana Schmerzler	 As Chair of the State Senate Finance Committee, Senator Krueger is running all of the budget hearings that the Senate and Assembly are holding in order to hear from State agencies and community organizations about what they're going to use the money for, and also to advocate for the needs and things that they want to see funded in this year's budget. Together with Senator Hoylman-Siegel, Senator Krueger has passed legislation that would work to make sure that mopeds are being licensed and sold correctly.
US Congress Member Dan Goldman, presented by Tevin Williams	 In January, launched 'NY-10 Alliance Against Gun Violence,' a series of events to highlight National Gun Violence Survivors week. Worked with fellow Democratic colleagues to oppose cuts to Social Security proposed by Republicans.
NYC Public Advocate Jumaane Williams, presented by Curtis Young	 The How Many Stops Act and the bill about solitary confinement both passed in December, both of which should help protect and promote public safety and transparency. We are hosting a Black History Month celebration on Feb. 26, and you can find more details on our web site.

	 We are continuing our monthly "Ask the Advocate" series on News2 – the next segment for New Yorkers to call in and post direct questions to the Public Advocate will be held on February 19th, as well as the same for the Caribbean Power Hour radio call-in station, which will be on Feb 16th at 10 a.m.
NY State Assemblymember Linda Rosenthal, presented by Andres Rubiano	 AM Rosenthal sent a letter to the Department of Education regarding the 60-day notices from H&H, which we know have been disruptive and harmful for our Asylum Seekers. We asked specifically for an inter agency communication system between the DOE and H&H, uniform notification systems, alerting school districts about the 60-day notice and more information from the DOE outlining all of the students legal right to return to their local school upon moving.
	 We were also very concerned about the report that recently came out about the health code violations in some of our schools in our district, including Ps11 and PS 245, among other smaller violations that were also reported. We sent a letter to the Department of Education, outlining our concerns and making sure that the trouble spots get rectified.
